UNITED STATES IS RULED BY MOST CORRUPT TYRANNY IN ALL HISTORY

THE GOVERNING POWER IS ANTI-CHRISTIAN, ANTI-WHITE, ANTI-WESTERN, ANTI-ARYAN

The Failure Of Jewish Conspiracy

By FRED FARREL

We must now measure the depth and magnitude of the failure of the Jewish Conspiracy. The Jewish Conspiracy now so thoroughly controls the United States that its downfall may also bring the downfall of the U.S.A. There are no effective salvic powers at work on the American scene today. The Jews have the U.S.A. by the tail on a downhill pull.

Nevertheless, the Jews are being defeated. As they go down in defeat, they may well carry the U.S.A. with them. Nobody, absolutely NOBODY, is looking after the real interests of the American people today. The U.S.A. is simply the world's largest Jewish Colony. The GOVERNING POWER in the U.S.A. is anti-Christian, anti-White, anti-Western, anti-Aryan. Among the "Professional Patriots" of the last 50 years can be found some of the greatest liars of all, indeed, some of the lowest traitors of all. They are the PAID TRAITORS who have made a business of lying about the basic nature of the problem. Consistently, they have said that we face the problem of "Driving out Radicals" or "Suppressing foreign agents." These men are mere "Channelizers," who seek to divert our attention from the real nature of the problem. Yet they command the loyalties of millions of good, patriotic Americans. They are lavishly financed. They occupy the center of the stage. The real patriot who tries to fight them soon finds himself condemned as a "disrupter" and shoved to the sidelines. Our real problem is not how to suppress an alleged "Revolution" arising from the lower depths of Society, or how to keep foreign agents out. OUR REAL PROBLEM IS THAT WE HAVE A DIRTY, ROTTEN, FILTHY, AND CORRUPT RULING CLASS, led by the Jews. We cannot correct this situation by "Electing Conservatives" or by "Driving out foreign agents." Indeed, it is probable that nothing less than a civil war would suffice to correct the imbalances which exist in the American Society today. The Ruling Class is consumed with contempt for the American Majority, which it seeks to interbreed with Negroes, in order to wipe them out racially. Yet civil war probably will not come. The busy "Channelizers" have just about destroyed the last chance of a new upsurge of American patriotism. The "Channelizer" always howls the slogans YOU love to hear; and he always leads you into hopeless futilities. The business of the

"Channelizer" is to capture control of the opposition, and to dissipate the energies of the opposition in futile activities.

However, Jewish power in the world is collapsing at a great rate. The Republic of Israel is doomed. The "Right Wing" is beginning to cry, "Don't send our boys to fight for Israel." It is not at all likely that any American soldiers will ever fight for Israel. We will not be saved from this ignominy by any upsurge of wisdom in Washington; if there is any wisdom left in Washington, it is indeed hard to find. We shall be saved, rather, by the ignorance, stupidity, cowardice, and corruption of official Washington. We have drifted into such a contemptible strategic position in the Middle East that we shall not be able to help Israel. We will not even be able to reach Israel. The Soviet-Arab alliance has played the game so smartly that we are effectively

Very Simple If You Know How

At a recent upstate meeting of old-timers the speaker remarked, "It is a horrible coincidence that our military casualty list in Viet Nam is about 170 men per month and that is about the number of International Bankers who are causing all the wars and trouble in this world."

A lean old World War I veteran from Kentucky rose and drawled to the speaker, "Young feller, you just give me the names and addresses of them bank boys and me and my two sons will get out our shooting irons and make this world right peaceful in no time."

What this country needs is just three Kentucky mountaineers with squirrel guns!

The Real Russia

Myth Versus Reality

By JOHN SULLIVAN

In the ancient port of Barcelona there stands a gigantic stone column surmounted by a statue of Columbus. It marks the spot where the discoverer of America was received upon his return by Ferdinand and Isabella, who had but recently expelled the Jews from their domain.

Not too many weeks ago your correspondent happened to be standing near this column admiring its heroic and graceful proportions. Glancing towards the water my eyes alighted on a huge freighter being unloaded of a cargo of timber. Upon her funnel was painted a gigantic hammer and sickle. She was Russian. Suddenly my mind's eye conjured up the memory of a picture I had seen of another Russian ship in the same harbor. It was taken during the height of the Spanish Civil War and this freighter was in the act of disgorging litter upon litter of Jewish revolutionaries headed by Moses Rosenberg and containing, among others, the late kosher literary clown and malevolent anti-Christian Ilya Ehrenburg.

The well-laid plans of the revolution directed by the firm of Rosenberg and Ehrenburg were utterly crushed by Gen. Franco in a bloody war which cost one million lives.

The Communists who fled back to Russia were hardly welcomed as returning heroes. On the contrary, Stalin had many of them shot. In fact, the entire Spanish Republican cause was basically a Wall Street-Trotskyite operation. The majority of its arms and the major portion of its foreign volunteers were funneled in through the Popular Front government in France headed by the Jew Leon Blum. Stalin has been accused of betraying the Spanish revolution. But this is past history, although of a most eye-opening variety.

What concerns us today is the question of why "Fascist" Spain and "Communist" Russia are gingerly moving into each other's orbit with trade and cultural agreements. If viewed from the standpoint of the Left-Right mythology such a turn of events is disconcerting to say the least. According to the Welchite criterion, Gen. Franco must now be a member of the "Communist Conspiracy." Who knows, he may even eat Polish ham!

Now, we don't think it would be too much of an exaggeration to say that General Franco knows a little more about Communism than Robert Welch. He has spent the shut out of the Middle East and now have no important role to play there. The Soviet-Arab alliance now controls enough of the North African Coast to be able to interdict ship movements in the Eastern Mediterranean at will. Senator Javits may howl as much as he wishes. The Nixon Administration, with all of its subservience to the Yids, will not be able to do anything in the Middle East.

Our utterly contemptible, lickspittle Congressmen apparently will vote huge arms aid to Israel. Voting in Washington is one thing; actually delivering the arms to Israel is quite another thing. When Soviet freighters attempted to deliver missiles to Cuba during the Caribbean crisis, U.S. Naval vessels turned back the freighters. Sauce for the goose is also sauce for the gander. It would not surprise us one whit if the Soviet Navy blockades Israel and forbids further arms importations.

Let us understand clearly, here and now, who is fighting the Jews today. THE RED ARMY is fighting the Jews. Many of our Right Wing troglodytes do not wish to believe this; it is contrary to the mythologies they have cherished. Yet the matter will be proven beyond dispute. Russia intends to FIGHT the Jews for world power. Indeed, Russia will undertake to KILL the majority of the world's Jews, including those now resident in the U.S.A. The killing of the American Jews will require a liberal application of nuclear power; a great many people besides Jews will be killed, since the 100-megaton bombs will not be able to distinguish between Jew and Goy. For fifty years, the professional "anti-Communists" have howled like banshees and whirled like dervishes. If they really want to fight Russia, they are quite certain now to have the chance, for Russia intends to wipe out the U.S.A., the world's largest Jewish Colony. They must either fight or else submit passively to destruction. The battle will not be fought with howled slogans or mythologies; atomic weapons will be the only chips which will count in the game.

Becoming involved in World War III is not a matter of "Sending our boys to fight for Israel." World War III quite likely will take place right here in the U.S.A. The mushroom clouds will arise over Denver and Dallas, over Delaney St. and Yeshiva University. The whole Jewish game depended upon keeping Russia under control. Since they have failed to keep Russia under control, they are helplessly and forever lost. It is true that Jews brought off the Communist Revolution in Russia; the great Capitalists of New York financed and promoted the so-called "Proletarian Revolution." Stalin later EXECUTED nearly all of the Jews who brought off the Revolution, including the Kingpin, Leon Trotsky. The final downfall of Jewish power in Russia came when the Jewish Chief of Secret Police, Lavrenti Beria, was killed. From that day onward, Russian strategy changed from a "Revolutionary" strategy to a straight classic MILITARY strategy. The Russians discarded Marx and adopted Clausewitz as their guide. The Jewish intellectual pimps of New York immediately embarked upon a campaign to swindle the Russians into being "Red" again, i.e., into submitting to rule by remote control from New York. Russians simply have no sound motive for buying such a pitch. They have discarded Jewish guidance and are now on their own, in implacable opposition to the Jewish World State. Their aim is to take over the "World Island," the great land mass of Asia, Europe, and Africa. The strategist MacKinder said, "Whoever controls the World Island controls the world." The Russians have nothing to lose but their Jews; they have a world to win.

What "Ideology" can the United States, the world's largest Jewish satrapy, set into motion against Russia today? "Free Enterprise"? The big-time "Free Enterprisers" of New York are and always have been the principal financial backers of World Communism and the World State. "Freedom"? We live under one of the most odious tyrannies the world has ever seen. The State even claims our own children and hauls them away in busses to introduce them to the joys of racial interbreeding. What can we offer to Europe? Only the prospect of racial destruction through the immigration of millions of colored people into white Europe. It is not at all surprising that the Europeans have lost faith in America and are turning to the Soviet Union. The GOVERNING POWER in America is against everything the Western Civilization ever treasured. It is against Christianity; it is against the white race; it is against freedom. The GOVERNING POWER in America today stands for nothing but enslavement to the Jews.

GENERAL FRANCO, who never recognized Israel, but did recognize that American foreign policy is suicidal and, that for all practical purposes, America has no future.

World War III will begin in the Middle East; but we will not have to go to the Middle East to become involved in it; it will spread quickly to Chicago and Los Angeles, to New York and Miami Beach. Wherever there shall be a band of Jews gathered together, there also will the atomic bombs come. Once the doom of Israel is sealed, as it soon will be, the Jews will revert to intellectual-revolutionary strategy. Their intellectual charlatany will not deter Russia from her military strategy for one instant. "Peace talks" will be a dime a dozen, but there will be no peace. The Jewish stance in the world has collapsed. Let us be sure that we understand what has collapsed. It is not the Right Wing or the Left Wing which has collapsed, but THE WHOLE FRAME OF REFERENCE which formerly made "Right versus Left" thinking possible. The ideological battle is over; the PURELY MILITARY battle has begun. If you want to fight in THIS battle, forget your high-flown and fly-blown "anti-Communist" slogans. Get your atomic bombs ready. If you have no atomic bombs, shut your mouth and get out of the way.

Can anything at all possibly save America at this late time of the clock? It is much too late to waste any time of day arguing issues which are polarized between "Right" and "Left." We cannot be saved by "Patriots" who accept slogan-shouting and mythology in lieu of an organized WILL-TO-POWER. We are told that the Jews are unbeatable because they "Control the currency." The Red Army has already proven that a bayonet applied vigorously to the fat fundament of a Jewish banker is an efficient method of "Currency Control." Today the MONEY POWER is good and dead. There is only one kind of POWER in the world today: MILITARY POWER. The "Age of Economics" is ended. In the near-term historical future, the issues of the world will be settled by NAKED FORCE AND VIOLENCE. We Americans are entering this new danger zone at a substantial disadvantage, since we are still tied to the Jewish policy of trying to dominate the world by intellectual power and manipulated ideological charlatany. If we remain tied to such a policy, we are finished. The "Right Wing" can never save us by fighting the "Left Wing," or vice-versa. For fifty years our "Right Wing Patriots" have howled their eagerness to "Fight Communism." Certainly they are now about to have their chance, for Russia clearly intends to ATTACK and WIPE OUT the World's largest Jewish satrapy, namely, the United States.

What can YOU do about it? Nothing unless you dismiss all your mouldy preconceptions and stale ideologies.

We have come to the End of the Era. "The Next Age" will be unrecognizable and perhaps unacceptable to present-day people. You will have to pay the price of having allowed yourselves to be pleasantly enslaved by the Jews, instead of having fought for your country, for the white race, for the Aryan culture. The Old America had wonderful possibilities; you allowed those possibilities to be murdered by the Jews. The Jews have destroyed your country, destroyed your culture, destroyed practically every really valid reason for your existence, and you did not lift a finger to stop the process. You are stateless people. The place which used to be your country is now merely an area, inhabited largely by cultureless barbarians, a formless mob whose integrated hides will be blown over the moon in an integrated mushroom cloud. It will be a suitable end for the mongrelized race of hippies and idiots which the Jewish RULING POWER seeks to create on the desolate ruins of the Old America. YOU YOURSELVES have strangled every genuine salvic force which attempted to arise among you.

The vultures always gather over a Gentile nation which allows itself to be ruled by the Jews. The HOUR OF DECISION came and went, and the American "Patriots" did not do anything effective to stem the tides of ruin. What now, Little Man?

Perhaps the best thing to do now would be to get yourself a linguaphone language course and learn Russian.

LEADER NEEDED

Dear God, these are perilous and apocalyptic days, as the dark clouds grow darker, and the moment of ultimate decision fast approaches. Still we are a nation totally without leadership. NO NATIONAL LEADER HAS APPEARED ON THE HORIZON. Yet, in the inscrutable designs of Divine Providence, we cannot believe, that YOU, O Lord, aware of the nature of these days and mindful of our indispensable need of a leader, have failed to provide for one. We implore YOU, to prevail upon him to step forward at this moment, and help lead this nation and the world out of its present chaos, according to the wishes of Your Divine Son, Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ!

REFLECTIONS ON RUSSIA...

By WILLIAM O'BRIEN

"Russia, the true, spiritual Russia is primitive and religious . . . It detests Western culture, civilization, state forms, etc. . . . It is the Russia of Moscow, "the Third Rome," the mythical successor to Rome and Byzantium . . . Thus there are two Russias: the Bolshevik regime and the true Russia underneath . . . The Russian mission is to destroy the West and any inner agitation within the West promotes this mission . . ."

— From "Imperium," by Francis P. Yockey.

"The split of the Communist Party of Russia over the question of Jewish nationalism must necessarily have strange overtones in years to come . . . The Jewish origin of the movement and the work of the Jewish Socialist Bund in establishing the Communist Party are historical facts . . . Jews predominated in both the Bolshevik and Menshevik groups . . . But the internal conflict for control of the movement never ceased. Until the ascendancy of Stalin the Jews controlled both the Soviet Government and the Communist Party of Russia . . . Stalin ruthlessly liquidated many of the old Bolsheviks nearly all of whom were Jewish.

"Jewish communism must some day come to grips with its creature Gentile Communism . . ."

— From "The Beasts of the Apocalypse"

By Olivia Maria O'Grady.

Anti-Semitism in Russia Today

Does anti-Semitism exist in Russia today? Has there been a change in the power structure of the Jews in the Soviet Union? We submit the following quotes for the record:

"Even Czarist Russia, the prison of peoples and the country of classic anti-Semitism, permitted Jews to leave. We feel ourselves prisoners and slaves."

— From a letter written recently by one Yosef Kazakov of Odessa to top Soviet leaders protesting current anti-Semitism.

"This frightening and unabated hurricane of vilification (by the Soviets, ed.) against our people has virtually no precedent in the entire 52-year history of the Communist regime. Neither Communist China nor Western Germany or the U.S.A. were ever accorded such an overdose of attention as is being accorded the state of Israel . . ."

— From "Jewish Examiner," May 7, 1970.

MOSCOW (UPI) — "Two virulently anti-Semitic novels written by the same author have drawn almost unanimous critical fire since their publication here BUT HAVE BEEN DEFENDED IN SOME QUARTERS (emphasis ours) . . ."

"Shevstov said in "FATHER AND SON," that Leon Trotsky . . . was an agent of international Zionism.

"He said the Jews subvert all that is healthy and patriotic in Communist as well as Western nations, and pointedly referred to Trotsky by his original Jewish name, Bronstein . . ."

— From Birmingham Post-Herald (Ala.) 4-27-70.

The following is from a study entitled: "The Soviet Empire: — A Study in Discrimination and Abuse of Power," released recently by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee and carried in "The Wanderer."

"Before World War II, 41.1 per cent of the Deputies to the Supreme Soviet of the USSR were Jewish; by 1958 the figure had dropped to 0.25%. Jews were also under represented in the Supreme Soviets of most Union Republics, especially those where most Jews reside, the R.S.F.S.R., Byelorussia, and the Ukraine . . ."

The study noted that Jews have virtually disappeared from sensitive areas of government in the USSR, such as the diplomatic service and the armed forces.

Quoting further from the report:

"In general, Jews are considered a security-risk group — suspected of actual or potential disloyalty, of essential alienness."

"Soviet pressures for assimilation, strictures on worship, limitations on teaching children about God, geographical dispersion . . . have dealt a savage blow to the Jewish community in the Soviet Union.

"In 1967, Soviet Jewry has all but ceased to exist as a unit. For the next fifty years any hopes for a rebirth of a viable community of Jews must be grounded more on faith than reality . . ."

— From Chicago Tribune, Oct. 27, 1967.

In subsequent issues Common Sense will bring you more information on the split between world Jewry and the Soviet Union. This is the most important and far-reaching phenomenon of our times and if the American patriotic movement persists in its ostrich-like behavior, in shying away from historical truth, a great opportunity to secure the future of the entire white race will have been lost, not to speak of the very survival of the American nation, which today is threatened as much by its would-be saviors as by its enemies.

Yesterday's truth is often an impediment to the understanding of tomorrow — and if the American right continues to be mired down by the dusty verities of 1948 it may find itself swept into the dustbin of history . . .

better part of his life fighting it, not with the proceeds of candy bar sales and vacuous literature, but with GUNS. Next to Hitler and Stalin, he has killed more Reds than anyone who has ever lived.

Franco is also one of the most intelligent statesmen of our time. He has an infallible sense of which way the winds of history are blowing. He knows that 1970 is not 1936, while the Welchites have not yet awakened to the fact that the era of Benjamin Harrison is no more. As the leader of the most virile Western nation, the one least touched by the cancerous rot of Anglo-American-Jewish decadence, he naturally wants to preserve this virility. He sees that the eastern Mediterranean is becoming a Russian lake. He knows what the Russo-German Treaty portends. Spain has never recognized the criminal state of Israel and her standing with the Arab nations is high. She stands to pull in a lot of chips when America is expelled from the oil-rich Middle East. On the other hand, Russia needs a friendly power, or at least a neutral one at the Western gate of the Mediterranean. It is not that Franco wants to sever his connections with the U.S. He simply has to look to the future because of the suicidal drift of Zionist-dominated American foreign policy.

To set all of this in the correct perspective we must understand that the paramount historical phenomenon of the past 170 years has been the rise of Russia as a world power. Ever since Kutusov broke Napoleon's army, the Slavic soul has been aflame with the idea of destroying what it considered to be the decadent civilization of the West. He wants to destroy it, but he sees himself as the heir to its culture in much the same spirit as our barbarian ancestors regarded Rome. In THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV, the seer and mystic Dostoyevsky states:

"I will go to Europe, I know well enough that I shall be going only to a churchyard, but I know too that this churchyard is dear, very dear to me. Beloved dead lie buried there, every stone over them tells of a life so ardently lived, so passionate a belief in its own achievements, its own truths, its own battle, its own knowledge, that I know — even now I know — I shall fall down and kiss those stones and weep over them."

If it were not for the treasonous commercial scoundrelism of the Anglo-Saxon countries, the West might have been able to overcome the Russian threat. As it was, in order to protect their markets they first allied themselves with Prussia to destroy Napoleon, and then with France and Russia to destroy the Prussian and National Socialist systems. This was called "maintaining the balance of power," a clever euphemism for race-treason and conscienceless profiteering. The sanctimonious British politician, Arthur Balfour, infamous for his pro-Zionist Balfour Declaration, had this exchange with Henry White, American Ambassador to Italy just before W.W. I:

Balfour: "We are probably fools not to find a reason for declaring war on Germany before she builds too many ships and takes away our trade."

White: "You are a very high-minded man in private life. How can you contemplate anything so politically immoral as provoking a war against a harmless nation which has as good a right to a navy as you have? If you wish to compete with German trade, work harder."

Balfour: "That would mean lowering our standard of living. Perhaps it would be simpler for us to have a war."

The drunkard, Churchill, told Gen. Robert Wood in 1936:

"Germany is getting too strong and we must smash her."

While betraying his own racial brethren and breaking down the defenses which had kept the Eastern hordes at bay for centuries, the Anglo-Saxon allied himself with the Jew. He became a champion of Jewish causes, a devotee of Jewish ideology, in fact, a Jew in all but blood. Not that he didn't realize the dangers posed to his loan-shark empire by Russia. He did. That is why the bankers of New York instigated a revolution in Russia. Through their agent Trotsky they meant to beat Russia down into the mire. Aflame with Talmudic hatred the Jews, headed by Messiah Trotsky-Bronstein and financed by Wall St., murdered the Russian aristocracy and intelligentsia. Hordes of agitators, ex-rabbinical students and sub-human criminals from the lower east side of New York descended like locusts on Russia. They induced famine and disease, chaos and nihilism. Russia was supposed to DIE. But she didn't!

The essential barbaric vigor of the people expressed through men like Tukachevski and Stalin threw off the yoke of the New York cash register Jews. Instead of the mud-hole envisioned by the illuminated usurers of Wall Street, a fertile ground for interest slavery, a gigantic Sparta has emerged in Eastern Europe. The revolution failed. Millions of Anglo-Yiddish dollars ended up in Stalin's pocket and Messiah Trotsky's vision of a New Jerusalem in Russia was aborted by an ax in his ugly head. Marxism is as dead in Russia as the Christianity it was supposed to replace. Out of the chaos has emerged a Russian Empire a thousand times more powerful than the Czars'.

The Russian Empire is not interested in world revolution, socialism, the brotherhood of man, marxism and the rest of the intellectual regurgitations of a decadent West. Marx means no more to them than the Bible. A perfect example of the Russian attitude towards Marx is the story of a German Communist who had buried his Marxist literature under the floorboards during the Third Reich. When the Russian occupation Army entered his town, the Teutonic comrade's house was commandeered as an officer's billet. Out came the library! A few days later our good comrade was shocked to discover his books stacked next to the toilet. His Russian liberators had put Marxist theory to the best practical use — as toilet paper.

Russia today is a pagan nation. Their god is Pierounn, the Slavic War God, the equivalent of Mars and Thor. No matter if his image is not set up on public buildings; it is engraved upon the hearts of the people. Tukachevski, Commander of the Red Army in an interview with a French officer had this to say concerning Judaism, Marxism and the future of Russia.

"Christian culture has deprived my fellow countrymen of the ecstasy of the god of war and the glamour of the carnival of death . . . The Jew is a dog, son of a dog, who sows his fleas in every land — I have told you that the Slavs are in want of a new religion. They are being given Marxism; but aspects of that theology are too modern and too civilized. It is possible to mitigate that disagreeable state by returning to our Slav gods . . . there is Daschbog, the god of the sun; Stribog, the god of the storm; Wolos, the god of human arts and of poetry; and also Pierounn, the god of war and lightning . . . I have accepted Pierounn . . . Seriously, it would be good for humanity were all books burnt, so that we could bathe in the fresh spring of ignorance."

This is the true utterance of the Russian soul. Nothing could be further removed from the Talmudic causality of Marxism. This is healthy barbarism straining to break the fetters of a sick, alien civilization.

The signing of the German treaty and Spain's reapproachment signifies that the Russians have already conquered Western Europe, that Europe prefers to be a province in the Russian Empire, sharing in an ascending historical movement than continue to be, as Yockey said in the PROCLAMATION OF LONDON: "... a backward population waiting for re-education by the American world-clown and the sadistic Jew, a beggar-colony watching for crumbs from the table of rich America, a loan market for the New York financier, creeping before American tourists." To side with America today is to ally oneself with death. It is to follow the Jew down his hysterical path to new and better Auschwitzes. History has finally caught up with the Anglo-Yiddish swindlers. Shopkeepers and intellectuals don't count in the world of struggle. The sword IS mightier than the pen, you see; and in the scale of history blood weighs more than gold.

The Russification of Europe was an event that was foreseen by many penetrating thinkers. Their words of course went unheeded. The bourgeoisie preferred the opaque visions of Jewish intellectuals. Chateaubriand realized the significance of Russia and longed to visit it because "she threatened to overwhelm the world." Custine visited Russia in 1839 and wrote "they wish to rule the world by conquest." DeTocqueville equated Europe with the disunited Greece that was conquered by Philip of Macedonia. Indeed, this is a stunning historical parallel; almost perfect. The Macedonians were barbarians with a veneer of Greek culture, Russians are barbarians with a veneer of European culture. Under the leadership of Philip's son, Alexander the Great, the Macedonians and Greeks overthrew the giant Persian Empire, soft, luxurious and decadent. Are we Persia?

The dream of a Russo-German alliance was also Lenin's. Although couched in Marxist jargon, it revealed, nevertheless that the embers of Russian Pan-Slavism were still alive despite the Jewish revolution:

"To unite the proletariat of industrial Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia with the proletariat of Russia, and thereby create a mighty agrarian and industrial combination from Vladivostok to the Rhine, from the Finnish Gulf to the blue waters of the Danube, capable of feeding itself and confronting the reactionary capitalism of Britain with a revolutionary giant, which with one hand would disturb the tranquility of the east and with the other beat back the pirate capitalism of Anglo-Saxon countries."

Such statements might have caused Lenin's death. It is not generally known, that he was shot by the Jewess Kaplan with a poison bullet, and died several months later.

As early as the middle 1920's the German Army headed by von Seeckt concluded a pact in which permission was granted to train in Russia in order to circumvent the Versailles Treaty.

Perhaps the most amazing prophecy of all was uttered by the great Spanish political writer Donoso Cortes in 1850:

"When nothing is left in the West but two camps, that of the despoilers and that of the dispossessed — then, gentlemen, the hour of Russia in the clock of time will have struck. Then Russia will be able to march peacefully, arms shouldered, into our lands; then, also, gentlemen, the world will witness the greatest chastisement in world history — the chastisement of England. Her ships will be useless against the colossal empire which grips Europe with one hand and India with the other."

Substitute America for England and you have an accurate description of the political situation as it exists today.

On February 21, 1943 General-Count Jordana, the Spanish Foreign Minister, tried to make the Anglo-Saxon powers realize the folly of their war policies.

"If events develop in the future as they have done up to now, it would be Russia which will penetrate deeply into German territory. And we ask the question: if this should occur, which is the greater danger not only for the continent but for England herself, a Germany not totally defeated and with sufficient strength to serve as a rampart against Communism, a Germany hated by all her neighbors, which would deprive her of authority though she remained intact, or a Sovietized Germany which would certainly furnish Russia with the added strength of her war preparations, her engineers, her specialized workmen and technicians, which would enable Russia to extend herself with an empire without precedent from the Atlantic to the Pacific? . . ."

The British ambassador Sir Samuel Hoare answered as follows:

"The Minister says that the great danger to Europe is Communism and that a Russian victory will make all Europe Communist . . . The British view is very different . . . will any single country be able to dominate Europe at the end of this war? Russia, at least, will need a long period of reconstruction and recovery in which she will depend greatly upon the British Empire and the United States of America for economic help . . ."

Here we see the fatuous hope around which all Allied war plans revolved. They reckoned that Russia would have to bring in foreign capital to reconstruct her war-shattered country. They were mesmerized by the vision of the enormous profits to be had from such an undertaking. Thus, they were willing to allow Russia a free hand in Eastern Europe in exchange for "trade" and "economic agreements."

On the contrary, it was a method of constructing markets for capitalism, markets subsidized by the American taxpayer. It led to the domination of Europe by American corporate-liberalism working hand in hand with blood-spotted Zionism. This has sown a harvest of hatred that we are just beginning to reap. Stalin had no intention of turning over his country to American corporations. As Russia was simply too decimated by the war to fight, he slammed down his "Iron Curtain" and began to reconstruct with his usual draconian methods. Once again, Stalin put one over on the Jews and the international financiers. All the Lend-Lease money they had invested in the Russian war effort went down the drain. This is what precipitated the "Cold War," not the fear of Russian expansion.

Almost overnight, militant Wall Street leftists metamorphosized into "anti-Communists." Joe McCarthy wasn't put out of commission because he thought he might find some secret agent of Stalin in the State Department, but because he was getting close to the scent which linked all the Jewish Communists — the Dexter Whites, the Rosenbergs and Company — with the high and mighty American capitalist establishment.

In his penetrating introduction to IMPERIUM, Willis Carto makes the point that the essential components of American foreign policy — and this holds true of all American policies whatsoever — are "enlightened greed and naive do-good stupidity," in other words, money and ideals. This combination is the bedrock of all bourgeoisie ideology, of marxism no less than capitalism. It is the world-view of the Nineteenth Century, the view that history is determined by philosophical "truths" and economic systems; that man was somehow progressing upwards and that material goods and drooling, humanistic ideals were the propellents of this progress.

Democracy was the dispensation under which this glorious upward thrust was to be fully realized. Man was to be free — a god he seemed to the panegyrists of equality, a beautiful, good and noble creature who, if but allowed to pursue happiness would grow in wisdom until he achieved utopia.

The pursuit of happiness has now ended — on a psychiatrist's couch, in a strait jacket on an LSD trip, or beaten to death by rioting savages. Progress has been revealed as a downward plunge into the abyss. Progress is a hypodermic needle, the drug that keeps the silent majority silent and man is not good or noble nor wise. He is the same old ludicrous combination of saint and sinner that the reactionaries have always said he was. History is hardly ever an upward spiral towards some never never land of peace and plenty.

Like all life it is cyclic; the ever recurring drama of war and peace, life and death, rulers and ruled, equals and unequal, victors and vanquished. It is, on its highest level, a struggle to maintain that fragile growth called culture, and on its lowest, the venting of the urge to crawl back into the prehistoric slime.

Right now America is trying its damndest to crawl back. It is infatuated with filth and vice. It loves its enemies and hates its friends. If there is a man who would fain pull America up from the dirt and wipe her clean, who would remind her of her heritage, and race, her destiny, who would dare to save her, she vilifies, persecutes and crucifies him. America has a death-wish. It yearns for the tomb and longs to feel the maggot tunneling in its vitals. Decadent America howls for birth control and abortion — a deep-seated psychological admission that they wish they were never born, that they hate and reject life itself. The coffin has triumphed over the cradle!

In place of the glad assumption of duties, there is the whine for rights. A morgue and a mad house is America, a funeral march to the thump of rock and roll. America lays down the burden of destiny and accepts oblivion. She will now feel the lash of the conqueror. In the words of Custine:

"When our cosmopolitan democracy, bearing its last fruits, shall have made of war a thing odious to whole populations, when the nations calling themselves the most civilized on earth shall have finished enervating themselves in their political debaucheries . . . the floodgates of the North will open on us once again, then we shall undergo a last invasion not of ignorant barbarians but of cunning and enlightened masters, more enlightened than ourselves, for they will have learned from our own excesses how we can and must be governed. It is not for nothing that Providence piles up so many inactive forces in the east of Europe. One day the sleeping giant will arise and force will put an end to the reign of words."

I, for one, have always felt that there was some invisible mystic link binding together the high cultures of the white race; that when one faltered another rose up to carry on. Egypt gave way to Greece; Greece to Rome; and Rome to the barbarian tribes who were our ancestors. Is the West—now dying—destined to pass on the torch to the Slav?

Draw whatever consolation you can from this, dear reader: for if we must have a tyrant, a million times better the Russians than the thing which rules us now. Better even a quick death in a nuclear holocaust than the slow, moulder and withering into the Jewish hell of mongrelization and nihilism. Better anything than a system which gives us no ideal worth living for and no faith worth dying for.

"These were my thoughts as I stood before the great stone column in the ancient port of Barcelona.
